

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE WORKING WITH CHILDREN EXEMPTION FORM

RAHC has provided the Application form and the Exemption form on the RAHC website's health professional's page at:

www.rahc.com.au/professionals/health-professionals-page

You will need to log-on to this page with the following details:

Username: health professional

Password: rahc

In addition to your Working With Children card (WWCC) Application form, you now have to complete the Working with Children Exemption Form. RAHC has pre-filled the form with relevant information but you must complete the form and send it in with your application form.

Refer to the RAHC website for your WWCC Application form and complete.

Complete the WWCC Employer Request for Exemption Form

The following sections need to be completed:

Section B – Individual Details

Complete section with your details

Section C – Exemption Details

Section at top of Page 2 on "Applicant holds a current WWC Card from another Australian state" If you do hold a current card please tick relevant state and provide a copy of your card

Signature section

Complete date section at the bottom below the signature with the date you have used for your WwC Application

